

Ottawa High School Scholarship

This is a $500 scholarship available to one full-time Ottawa High School senior. This scholarship is intended to encourage and reward a student's community service, encourage students to work for Ottawa Recreation Commission and encourage students to pursue a career in parks and recreation.

Eligibility

- Must be a full-time student in senior year at OHS
- Must have been enrolled to attend college in Kansas after graduation
- Preference to students majoring in Parks and Recreation, Physical Education or Sport Management
- Preference to students with ORC employment or volunteer work experience

Applications will be accepted February 1 – April 2 each year. Late applications are not accepted. Finalists will be contacted for interviews. Please do not inquire about your status. We intend to communicate with each applicant as soon as possible. Winner will be encouraged to gain experience by applying to work for ORC the following summer and/or fall.
